

Time Out

2012

Everything you need to know
€4

Lisboa

ALL YOU NEED FOR THE PERFECT BREAK

LISBON

FOR VISITORS

Sights | Arts | Clubs | Restaurants | Golf | Beaches | Shops

Top Lisbon souvenirs

This ceramic Andorinha (swallow) is a design by 19th-century artist Bordalo Pinheiro is €17 at A Vida Portuguesa (Rua Anchieta 11).

Once a top seller in Portugal, prettily packaged Ach Brito soaps were relaunched to acclaim by Chiado store A Vida Portuguesa (Rua Anchieta 11).

Not the kind of sampler your gran would make, this is among many sold online by "retro-innovative" Lisbon outfit Hardcore Foto.

Just one of the many practical and stylish products in the ultimate Portuguese material, at Cork & Co (Rua das Salgadeiras 10, Bairro Alto).

Vista Alegre (Largo do Chiado 20) is known for its fine ceramics; this mug is one of its fun new Lisbon-themed designs.

Fluorescent Santo Antonio

What could be more Portuguese than a sardine? Take one home with you, in textile form: €2.50 from A Amiga Portuguesa (Rua da Saudade 6, Coscates).

One of Portugal's top olive oil brands, Azeite José Gourmet is on sale from €4.50 at the museum shop in the Central Cultural de Belém.

Real tinned fish, one of a huge range of Tricana and other brands stocked at the Conserveira de Lisboa (Rua dos Bacalhoiros 34, Alfama).

